Emotion, power and a sprinkle of heaviness

Some days are better than others. There are those days you wake up feeling on top of the world, ready to take on anything in your path—nothing is impossible and nothing is out of reach. Then there are the other days the...not so great ones. Those days where it's almost impossible to get yourself out of bed, let alone take on the slings and arrows planet Earth is about to cast upon you. But no matter what kind of day you're having, SETTLE YOUR SCORES are out to make sure you make the most of it, and prepare you for a brighter, more energetic tomorrow. SETTLE YOUR SCORES' youthful, exuberant style combines an unyielding candor with emotion, power and a sprinkle of heaviness that adds punch and zest to their angst-tinted and relatable material. Driving and immense, yet creative, catchy and fun, SETTLE YOUR SCORES can take your best day and make it even better or take your worst day and flip it upside down, making them a quintessential band going into a potentially rocky 2018.

Formed in late 2014, SETTLE YOUR SCORES wasted little time in establishing a name for themselves in the Midwest music scene and the digital sonisphere at large. With a well-established regional presence and an energetic, vibrant and bold live performance, the group unleashed their debut full-length record, »The Wilderness«, in January of 2016 and haven't slowed down since. With nearly an hour of high-energy heavy pop punk under their belt, the outfit hit the road with the likes of KNOCK-OUT KID and FOR THE WIN, making several appearances at festivals throughout the Midwest and beyond in the meanwhile. SETTLE YOUR SCORES' hard work was not for naught—as the ground remainder busy on their highly-anticipated sophomore record as well as penning a deal with SharpTone Records, providing them a sprawling and diverse outlet through which to let loose the product of over two years of writing, touring and recording. With the doors to 2018 and beyond wide open, SETTLE YOUR SCORES are prepared to come out swinging, not stopping until they're a well-established, effervescent force to be reckoned with on every continent.
